

I write in opposition to the ARRL's proposal. Dubbed a "New Entry Level License", it is not. The new privileges are far too close to that of a General Class license holder. It would not leave much motivation to upgrade to a higher class of license with more privileges. I also believe that Morse Code should be required for classes of General and above.

Thank You for your consideration.